ASSASSINATION OF A GOOD CITIZEN IN LAWRENCE COUNTY

Joe Pruitt, of Clifford, Shot From Ambush at the Door of His Home.

Joe Pruitt, age 43, was assassinated at his home near Clifford, this county, ten miles southeast of Louisa, on last Monday morning. The body was found on the outside of the doorway, and the door was closed. On it were bloody marks where his hands had been placed against it as he fell dead. Evidently he tried to make his way into the house after the shots struck him. There is blood on the ground at the corner of the house also, indicating that the first shot struck him while at that point. Two balls hit him, one entering the shoulder from the back and ranging downward, passing through the lung. The other went through one arm. Both shots were fired from behind Mr. Pruitt and were from a high powered weapon.

Ulysses Branham, a neighbor, was the first person to reach the scene except Mr. Pruitt's son, Cleve, and his wife. The son lives on his father's farm. He said he heard the shots and heard his father make an outcry, and sent his small boy to see about it. On the body was found $145 and a watch. The theory of robbery therefore does not have much weight. Mr. Pruitt's wife died about a year ago. He has no children except the son referred to. Another son, Henry, enlisted in the army when the United States entered the World war and died of pneumonia at the camp near Columbus three weeks after reaching there. He had taken $5000 or $6000 life insurance and his father was receiving this in monthly installments. Mr. Pruitt owned a farm of about 65 acres. He had been living alone most of the time since his wife's death. On the morning he was killed he had breakfast at the home of his son. This is one of the most diabolical murders that has occurred in Lawrence county. Mr. Pruitt was an excellent citizen who attended strictly to his own affairs and had no enemies, so far as can be learned. The neighborhood is greatly wrought up over the affair. There is strong suspicion as to the guilty party.

STEAMER DAVIS.

The Fullerton writer in Russell Times says:—The steamer J. P. Davis rounded in from Prestonsburg Sunday night. The boys were all glad to get back home. Capt. Davis has not made up his mind just what he will do with the boat but it is more than likely he has enough of Big Sandy. He says there's plenty of business up there, but not enough water for a boat of that size. Quite likely he will take up the excursion business for another year.

John P. Gartin Makes Big Land Deal

John P. Gartin has announced the purchase of the 300-acre tract owned by Capt. J. M. Ferguson and located at the terminus of Twenty-ninth-st., Ashland, and on the road leading from Oakview.

The consideration was $100,000. The tract is located within the corporate limits of the city of Ashland and will be put on the market in tracts of various sizes to suit the purchaser.

This is the second large deal which Mr. Gartin has completed in the past several weeks, the first one being the purchase of the Faulkner tract. Already twelve sub-divisions have been sold in this tract, "The Acre Sub-division."

The Ferguson farm is one of the few remaining undeveloped sections in the city limits. Other surrounding land has already been developed and with the purchase of the Ferguson farm a continuous suburb will be made in the region southeast of South Ashland.

While in the Big Sandy town he devoted his time and efforts to the successful development of several outlying districts of Louisa.

With the completion of this $100,000 deal already over $500,000 in real estate development is seen as the result of the past several weeks.

Only last week Park Hill was purchased by J. E. Buckingham, T. A. Field and J. W. M. Stewart which will be developed—Ashland Independent.

Unidentified Man Killed by Train

At an early hour Saturday morning the body of an unidentified man, about 50 years old, was found on the railroad track at Ashland. He had been struck by a train and killed. The body was taken to an undertaking establishment and in a pocket was found a letter written to Wyco, W. Va., to "Dora," evidently his wife, as he spoke about the children in the letter. He had not affixed his signature.

Later—This man is J. P. Lewis, of Wyco, W. Va.

JILTED AND WANTED TO DIE, MISSING CONVICT EXPLAINS

Frankfort, Ky., April 25.—Julian L. Dale, negro convict who had been missing four days, heard his girl had married another fellow rather than wait until he had finished his five-year sentence and "jest wanted to go off and die," he told H. V. Bastin, superintendent of the State Reformatory, here today.

Hunger, however, caused Dale to change his mind after four days of fasting, and he ventured out late last night to seek food and was seen by a guard.

He was captured this morning. He said he had had no food or water during the four days.

He thought that possibly he had eaten some of the glass.

BREATHITT MURDER CASES TRANSFERRED TO BOYD COUNTY

Clayhole Election Riot to be Reviewed at Catlettsburg, Starting June 12.

Jackson, Ky., May 2.—The famous Clayhole election day murder trials will be held at Catlettsburg before Circuit Judge W. C. Halbert. The date set is June 12.

This decision was made today by Judge Sam Hurst of the Breathitt Circuit Court, who granted a supplemental motion for a change of venue and trial before a disinterested court.

Great pressure has been brought to bear on Judge Hurst through the newspapers for a change of venue, he having at first denied a motion for change.

Decision for the transfer to the Boyd circuit court was announced today. Thirteen men—nine of them republicans and four democrats—are charged with murder of four men—three democrats and one republican.

The men who were killed are Cleveland Combs, Asbury Combs and Ethren Allen, democrats, and George Mcintosh, republican. Cleveland Combs and McIntosh were election officers in Clayhole precinct.

Those accused of the killings are L. L. Combs, Shade Combs, French Combs and George Allen, democrats; and Will Barnett, Ambly Barnett, Marion Barnett, Alfred Barnett, Willie Davis, Chester Davis, Ed Davis, Will Campbell and Ed Combs, republicans.

The four democrats are charged with killing McIntosh, republican election official. The nine republicans are charged with the murder of Cleveland and Asbury Combs and Ethren Allen, democrats.

The killings occurred at Clayhole precinct Breathitt county, last November while the election was in progress. It is said that fourteen men stormed the election booth and after that smoke had cleared away three democrats and one republican were dead. The ballot boxes were broken into and the ballots destroyed.

At that election Judge Hurst, a republican, was elected to his present position on the circuit bench. The Clayhole precinct was overwhelmingly democratic.

At the recent March term of court the thirteen men were arraigned on charges of murder. Attorneys for the defense made a motion for a change of venue from Judge Hurst's court, claiming that he could not preside impartially at the trials due to his political and his campaign that had ended with the election day that saw the tragedy.

Judge Hurst denied the motion for trial in another court and before another judge. Immediately he was attacked by newspapers throughout the state. His amended ruling today is said to be the result of the newspaper pressure.

The thirteen accused men are now at liberty on bail. The Clayhole precinct has before been the center of political turmoil—Ashland Independent.

City Council Holds Regular Monthly Meeting

The city council met Tuesday night with Mayor L. F. Wellman presiding and the following councilmen present: H. W. Creel, R. C. Burton, Charter Wellman and Claude Wilson. Also, City Attorney A. J. Garred, Clerk J. G. Burns, and Marshals Cyrus and Thompson.

From the report of fines the police court has been lively during the past month.

The purchase of 500 feet of new fire hose was reported.

A sanitary sewer was ordered put in to serve the people on Lock avenue extension, south of Powhatan street.

The marshal was ordered to clean up the taxes for 1921 and make settlement with A. J. Garred before the meeting of June 6.

The Mayor complimented the work of deputy marshal Mont Thompson and suggested that his salary be raised. It was increased from $60 to $75 per month. He is on duty, chiefly to clean the streets, look after street lights, etc.

This being clean-up week the marshals were instructed to see the people about it who have not cleaned their premises.

The Mayor called attention to the ordinance fixing license of $100 per day for street carnivals and suggested lowering the license. This was done and the rate fixed at $5 per day for each stand. Reference was made to gambling schemes worked at Pikeville recently by street carnival people, but the Mayor said he believed the Louisa marshals would prevent such work here or would see that the gamblers are punished.

John H. Preece was appointed a deputy marshal without salary.

The public well on Lock avenue, adjacent to Wm. Remmel's property, was ordered put into condition for use.

The question of disputed property lines in Italy was again the subject of lively discussion, but the council refused to take any official action in the matter.

GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL MAY 7

Next Sunday, May 7, will be Kentucky's ninth Go-to-Sunday School Day. It was in Kentucky that this day originated and afterwards spread to all parts of North America, and last year was observed in Brazil in South America. Kentucky's governor was the first governor ever to issue a proclamation inviting all people of the state to attend Sunday school. Each year thousands of people have accepted the invitation and have not only come on this special day, but many of them have become regular members of the Sunday school.

Invitations are being extended by every Sunday school in Kentucky to everybody in the state to come to Sunday school next Sunday. Special programs will be observed in most of the schools. Every one who attends will receive a cordial welcome.

The Kentucky Sunday School Association that has promoted this day for the last ten years has been instrumental in awakening an enthusiasm in the Sunday schools of Kentucky that makes Kentucky rank near the top in the percentage of the people of the state attending Sunday school and in the character of the work that is being done by the Sunday schools.

It has not only helped in getting the people to come to Sunday school, but it has also suggested programs for that special day and for following up the day, and has been the means of placing the Bible in thousands of homes in the state.

The value of such a day as this was recognized by all right thinking citizens of the state. There has been the heartiest co-operation on the part of the editors of the papers; the leaders in Sunday school work of the different denominations; the pastors and superintendents of the churches and Sunday schools; all who are engaged in educational work and those who are the officers in our state, county and towns. These have all united year after year in emphasizing the great benefit to the people of Kentucky in knowing and obeying the will of God.

There are still hundreds of thousands of people in Kentucky who are not attending Sunday school and church, and an earnest effort is being made to add at least one hundred thousand of these to the permanent membership of the Sunday schools of Kentucky during 1922.

Two other women, Mrs. Bell Emerick and Mrs. Mary McGlothlin, were members of the petit jury.—Catlettsburg Record.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR DEPUTY SHERIFF

While a deputy sheriff of Perry-co., Ky. Terrell killed Lee Combs, a young man 19 years old whom he thought was violating the prohibition laws and for this offense he will have to serve a life sentence in the penitentiary. The Court of Appeals Saturday affirmed the judgment of the lower court imposing the sentence, holding that there was no merit in any of the contentions set out for a new trial.

Terrell, as deputy sheriff, was assigned to the Blue Diamond mines with another officer, Johnny Combs. Terrell was under the impression that moonshine whiskey was being brought into the county and on the night of the murder he and Combs stationed themselves at a bend of the road some distance from the mining camp and at a point where large trees and rocks screened them from view.

Shortly before dark Lee Combs came down the road riding a mule and there was across the saddle an old fashioned pair of saddle bags. Terrell and Johnny Combs stepped out into the road and commanded Lee Combs to stop, which the testimony shows he failed to do, and Terrell fired killing him. Terrell contended that when Combs passed him he saw the necks of bottles extending from the saddle bags.

BLAINE POOL OIL RUNS LEAD STATE

Barbourville, Ky., April 29.—Kentucky's crude oil production is now showing a gradual increase and runs are well up to the average maintained last summer. With better pipe line connections and more thoroughly established pools, the increase is expected to be even greater during the next few months of warmer weather.

Eastern Kentucky runs of the Cumberland Pipe Line Company last week totaled 80,815 barrels, as compared with 78,409 barrels the preceding week. Aggregate independent runs total about half of this amount. Of this producing pools the various districts of Les county continue to show the largest output, but the Blaine pool of Lawrence and Johnson counties has forged to the front as the leading single-producing district of the State, with weekly runs now exceeding 10,000 barrels.

Rain Checks Work. Rain has slowed up development work the last week and all sections report fewer completions. No sensational strikes are reported from any pool. In Johnson county one of the best of late strikes was the Weldman completion on the Wright lease, starting at 20' barrels. This company, it is stated, has nine other completions in that area, all good producers. The Union Oil & Gas Company has a brace of new wells, both of good capacity, in the Kenton Fork section, Skaggs leases. In the Johnson-Magoffin pool Slip and associated recent test on the McCormick lease is said to produce 40 barrels.

Many new locations have been made in the Big Paint creek area, where 5 and 10-barrel wells have been numerous this year. The Berea pool of Johnson county is also more active, with many new locations made. These wells are of long life and, with a market now established, the year will be one of much activity in that section.

Morgan County Ravival.

The upper Kentucky districts have shown nothing noteworthy in new production for the week. In Morgan county there is a renewal of drilling which promises to put that district on the oil map. Near West Liberty the Petroleum Exploration Company has drilled a gasser which shows more than 1,000,000 cubic feet. Three new tests were under way in the West Liberty section.

Two or three light wells were completed in the Lee-Estlin fields, none exceeding 10 barrels. The week in Lower Kentucky was also without feature.

Oil Well in Elliott.

Word was received from Elliott county Friday that the Potter Oil Co. shot its oil well near Isonville and got a good 25-barrel producer. Officers of the company say that they will drill six more wells on their property in the Isonville section of Elliott this summer. The Little Banjo Oil Company has three wells in the same section and the Yost interests have three wells on the Peters lease adjoining the well just drilled in by the Potter Company, and it is definitely reported that the pipe line will extend into this field from the Lawrence county oil field at once.

Boy Killed by Stone From Mountain Side

Pikeville, Ky., May 1.—A cow on a hillside pasture dislodged a twenty-five pound rock which crushed to death Luther Lamb, 5 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lamb of Ratliff's creek.

The child had been spending the day with his grandparents, with his mother and 7-year-old brother. Late in the afternoon the children were sent home to build fires and attend to the evening chores.

As they were passing a cliff near their home, the rock crushed the younger boy. He died almost instantly. The rock, it was found, had rolled 100 yards.

Mrs. Flanery's Name for Kentucky Cyclopaedia

The Ashland Independent says:—Quite a compliment has again been extended to our distinguished neighbor, Mrs. Mary Elliott Flanery, who was only recently elected to the State legislature. The additional honor will be the recording in a new volume "The Biographical Cyclopaedia of American Women," the name of the first woman South of the Mason and Dixon Line to hold this unique position. The author if the volume requested the State Historical Society to furnish a sketch of the most prominent woman in Kentucky and the result was the choosing of Mrs. Mary Elliott Flanery, whose name will represent the state of Kentucky. Only one woman will be selected from each state. It was learned in a letter from Mrs. Mary C. Haycraft of Frankfort, who announced that Mrs. Flanery had been chosen. The woman of north eastern Kentucky should feel justly proud that the selection has been made from one of their very near friends. We feel assured that no daughter of our state is more worthy of being recorded as our representative in the history of Kentucky women than Mrs. Mary Elliott Flanery.

THE LIVE WIRES.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

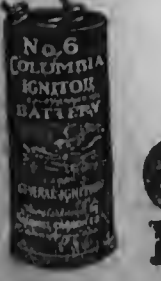

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Louisa people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. Mrs. J. B. Riffe, of Lock Ave., Louisa, endorsed Doan's four years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony? "About a year ago I found it necessary to use a kidney remedy and as I had read and heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them," says Mrs. Riffe. "My back, at that time, was a constant ache. I was dizzy and had blurred eyesight. My kidneys were irregular in action also. It didn't take many of Doan's Kidney Pills to quickly relieve me and help me in every way. Doan's made my kidneys much stronger." (Statement given Dec. 5, 1916).

On December 3, 1920, Mrs. Riffe said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me is still permanent. I am glad to again recommend them, for I know they can be depended upon for any form of kidney trouble."

$50,000.00 KENTUCKY DERBY

Will Be Run at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Saturday, May 13th

Morvich, the Champion of Last Season, and a Large Field of Other High Class Three Year Olds, Will Be Among the Starters For the Greatest Stake in America

The forty-eighth renewal of the Kentucky Derby, which will be run at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Saturday, May 13th, promises to be the most interesting in the long history of this famous race. This year the Kentucky Jockey Club has added $50,000, and a $7,000 gold service to the winner, making it in point of value the richest, as it always has been the most sought after three-year-old stake in America. There clusters around the Derby all the memories and the romance that make the turf so alluring and that enshrines Churchill Downs in the hearts of half a century of race lovers.

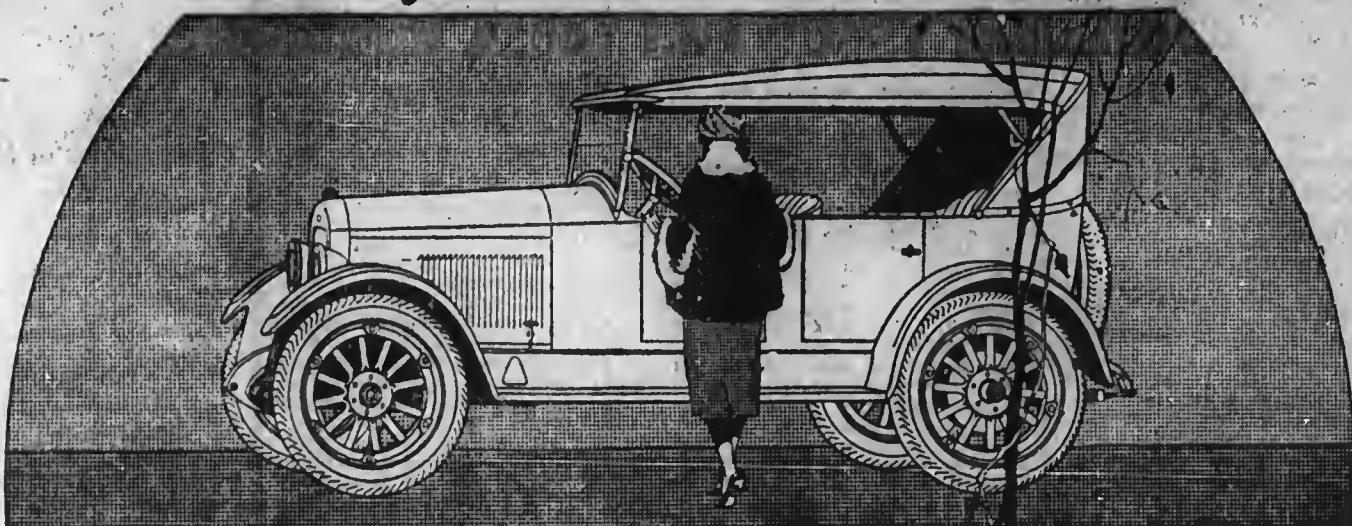

Beginning with Aristides, the first winner, and continuing through an immortal roster of thoroughbred Kings, public interest in the Derby has increased every year until to-day the names of the contenders are household words, and their respective merits are subject of arguments that will not cease until the number of the winner is hung out on May 13th. The outstanding favorite this year is Benjamin Brock's Morvich, which finished his two-year-old career by winning every race in which he started, beating all his competitors with an ease that marks him as a colt of surpassing speed and quality, approaching, if he does not equal, Man o' War. Morvich is training at the Jamaica race track, New York, where his trials are phenomenal. He will probably start in the opening handicap at Jamaica and will be shipped immediately thereafter to Churchill Downs where he will receive his final workout for the Derby.

The prowess of Morvich has not discouraged the owners of other Derby candidates and there will be a field of from twelve to fifteen horses to contest with the champion for the $50,000 stake and its accompanying $7,000 gold souvenir. Among the number are Harry Payne Whitney's Olympus, a recent winner at Havre de Grace, over older handicap horses, and at least one other high-class colt from the same stable; Montfort Jones' Surf Rider, the winner of six races last year, and Rockminster, a promising Friar Rock colt; John Finn, whose work at Lexington makes him a dangerous contender; the great filly Starlet, which might repeat the victory of Regret, the only filly to win the Derby; Washington from the same stable is also showing improved form this Spring; E. R. Bradley has By Golly, Busy American and Bet Mosie, and he makes no secret of the claim that he expects to run one two in this year's Derby as he did last year with Behave Yourself and Black Servant; J. S. Cosden who already has one Derby winner to his credit in Paul Jones, believes he has an excellent chance to win with Good Times; Kai Sang, who ran second to Morvich several times last year, is eligible for the Derby; Gentility, the winner of the Lexington Futurity, has worked faster than any filly in the West. Unless she is saved for the Oaks, she will certainly go in the Derby. Lucky Hour is the hope of the Simms' stable. He is already a winner this year, was second in the Pimlico Futurity last year, and is a horse of undoubted class. With Deadlock, Spanish Malze, Chatterton, My Play and several other dark horses to draw from, there is sure to be a large field of the best three-year-olds in America to face the starter at Churchill Downs on Saturday, May 13th.

The Downs is more beautiful than ever this year, accommodations for the public have been greatly increased, and every arrangement has been made for the reception of at least 75,000 people. The Kentucky Derby is the center of all attraction in the turf world and Churchill Downs will be the Mecca to which all lovers of high-class sport will turn out Saturday, May 13th, the opening day of the Spring meeting at Louisville, which will continue until June 8th. The Jewett Is Here

The Price Is $1065

The New Jewett Light Six is now on exhibition in our show rooms.

To you, and everyone who is interested in motor cars, we extend a very cordial invitation to see this car and arrange for a demonstration.

And we do not hesitate to say in advance that you are going to be surprised, delighted and not a little mystified.

You are going to be surprised because the Jewett is all that you have imagined—and a great deal more.

You are going to be delighted because it is the very car that you have hoped for—and waited for—these many years.

You are going to be mystified because you will, for the first time, view a fine quality six at the price of a four.

To produce this car and sell it for $1065, f. o. b. Detroit has required years of study and all the ingenuity and resources of the Paige Engineering staff.

It would have been a simple matter to compromise on four cylinder construction and thus achieve a popular price. But mere price was not the aim and the Four can no longer be considered in terms of fine engineering.

This is the day of six cylinders because the six is an inherently balanced mechanism. The natural balance and overlapping power impulses mean, smooth, even, vibrationless riding qualities.

These, in turn, mean maximum economy because friction and vibration are the chief destructive agents in mechanics.

You have only to ride in the best four that was ever built to realize its fundamental imperfections.

The Four must "fight" to get under way. It delivers a series of vicious, stabbing blows on the crank shaft. In consequence, the entire car throbs and vibrates like a tuning fork.

How long, do you imagine, can any mechanism remain staunch and tight under such punishment?

Fours will "run," of course. But how do they run? And how much genuine satisfaction is there in the running?

Is it a nerve-racking chug-chug-chug or the soft, thrilling purr of overlapping impulses.

For these reasons, and many others, the New Jewett is a six with a mighty reservoir of fifty horse power.

It will sweep you over the road at sixty miles per hour, if you like, or amble along at three. And, at either pace, you will travel as sensible people want to travel—easily, smoothly, quietly.

In spite of its amazingly low price, the Jewett is a car of rare beauty, finish and appointment. It is a stinging rebuke to the common place designs of the popular priced field.

Best of all it is built as all Paige products are built to serve you faithfully and with deep respect for your pocket book.

But come in and see the Jewett for yourself. Come prepared to ride with us. For that is the one way that you can experience the thrill of commanding a fifty horse power six cylinder motor.

That is the one way that you can actually know and appreciate the Jewett.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce H. C. DUFFY, of Harrison county, as a candidate for Representative in Congress from the Ninth Kentucky District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce W. J. FIELDS, of Carter county, as a candidate for the nomination for Congress in the Ninth District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the primary election to be held on Saturday, August 5, 1922.

Newspaper criticism forced Judge Hearst, of Breathitt, to reverse himself and send the Clayhole murder cases outside of his district for trial.

Albert J. Beveridge, former Senator and a Bull Moose, defeated Senator Harry S. New for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator in Indiana Tuesday. Bad year for the stand-paters.

The home coming proposed for Lawrence county next October, along with a celebration of the county and city centennial, is being enthusiastically received. Already we are receiving lists of former residents and of natives who have moved away. It has been suggested by some of our farmers that a county fair, or at least a display of live stock and farm products be made for two or three days of the week selected. This will no doubt be done. Let everybody get the spirit and help to create the necessary enthusiasm.

Floyd county has upon the Mayo Trail enterprise in accord with the other counties along the line of this important highway, thus closing the last gap. Floyd gives $100,000 to the State for use on this road and it has been accepted. The National road commission has approved four of the projects on this road for federal aid. It is expected that contracts for grading the Floyd county line will be let in June.

When completed through to Virginia this will be a favorite highway for tourists between the north and south, as it passes through some of the most beautiful mountain scenery in America.

The association organized March 27 by cities and towns of Eastern Kentucky to work for the location of the new State Normal School within the territory contemplated in the inception of the plan, is busy with the proposition. Committees met at Ashland Wednesday and took action along all the lines that were deemed effective and advisable at this time.

This organization covers all the counties in the Big Sandy valley as well as Letcher, Carter and Greenup. Its strength is great enough to command attention and respect. It is acting as a unit in opposing any effort to locate the school at any point that will not best serve the interests of that part of Eastern Kentucky that is so far removed from our State schools. This organization came into existence because of what appears to be very grave danger of locating the school at a place that is unsuitable in almost every important particular. Between this time and the 15th of June when the commission named will be appointed, all proper facts bearing upon the situation will be given to the public and to the commission.

Buckingham For Governor. The following is from the Louisville letter to the Cincinnati Enquirer of last Sunday. It is a suggestion that will be enthusiastically received in Eastern Kentucky, where Mr. Buckingham is very prominent in business affairs. He would make just the kind of Governor needed in Kentucky. He is not a politician, but is a real business man. Also, he is a man of vision and public spirit. A considerable part of his time and means are given to enterprises and movements for the good of the people in general.

The Enquirer says: "In line with the attitude of Democratic leaders desiring a business man for Governor, the name of John E. Buckingham, of Ashland, Ky., has been put forward for consideration. Mr. Buckingham was a business associate and close friend of the late John C. C. Mayo, Democratic National Committeeman from this state."

Mr. Buckingham is administrator of the vast Mayo properties and as an example of his business ability it is pointed out that he is President of the Ashland National Bank and nine other banking institutions up the Big Sandy and Kentucky river valleys. Mr. Buckingham was born in Paintsville, but moved to Ashland three years ago. He is 43 years old and regarded as one of the state's most successful men.

His interests in the East are extensive through his trading in coal and lumber.

NOTICE!

John Workman has just received a nice assortment of new sewing machines and the low prices will surprise you if you are in need of a machine. Or if it is something to wear just call and get our prices on new goods that have just arrived. Our place is just across the street from the bakery, J. H. SKAGGS & JOHN WORKMAN, Louisville, Ky.

Luther Atkins went to Huntington, W. Va., Friday for a few days visit to his sister, Mrs. N. P. Patterson.

TUSCOLA

But very little corn has been planted on account of the visit of Jack frost. It appears that the fruit is damaged, but plenty on the trees yet if it doesn't fall before it matures. With the exceptions of a few mud holes the roads are solid and cars are passing over them. Bobby Daniel, who has been dangerously sick for the past four months is still confined to his bed. Martin Wright killed a large owl last week. It measured four feet six inches from tip of wing to tip of wing. The marauders that visit the chicken roost will soon be gone.

While harrowing last week Andy Webb, Jr., fell from his harrow and sustained some fractured ribs and bruises which are very painful indeed.

James Prichard bought from Jeff Riffe and son a fine purebred Percheron colt. He will be two years old the first day of June and is the finest colt we have ever seen in this neighborhood. Jim is an advocate of purebred stock and practices what he preaches. Bill, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frasher, was informed, is convalescing, but is still very sick. John Evans passed thru last week with three hounds which shows that he belongs to the association. Three hounds at this season of the year ought to be able to keep the foxes scared away so that they would not destroy a man's crop. Corn ought to be plentiful in the fall. We are informed that booze was very plentiful at the meeting at the head of Catt recently and that the fumes were so strong that those not accustomed to such became sick. It is said that girls came in intoxicated. The Sunday school at Oilville is largely attended and much interest is manifested.

Some of our good people attended the meeting at Dennis Sunday. Rev. E. S. Flynn of Glenwood will preach at Oilville next Sunday evening and night. Come ye and hear him. This is a busy time, but not too busy for some to spend all night out with hounds and neglect their work and "cuss" the government because they are not.

OLD LEM JUCKLENS.

YATESVILLE

We have a very heavy blackberry bloom and the indications are that the crop will be good, but owing to the last frost we had on last Saturday night it is believed by many that the peach and apple crop will be a failure. William Blankenship and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Rupe at Cadmus. Attorney William Savage was on East Fork on legal business on last Thursday and Friday. Farmers are all busy just now. Up to this writing there is scarcely any corn planted at all. Bascom Thacker is farming on Edmond Riffe's land this year. The cool weather of the last week has stunted the growth of the grass somewhat. Work on the new road is progressing fine. Both the steam shovels, the one here and the one at Fallsburg were crippled last week which delayed their work for a day or so. Mrs. Jack Short is about straightened up from a spell of sickness she had some weeks ago. James Foster of Morgans creek is dangerously ill at this writing. His trouble is Bright's disease. Miss Pearl Blankenship and Miss Lou Carter were horseback riding a few days of last week and while out they stopped and stayed over night with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Compton.

BUTTER MILK KID.

LOGAN, W. VA.

Dave Kirk was sentenced to one year in the state penitentiary for the unlawful wounding of Grover Buskirk in December, 1921. Kirk was found guilty upon the above charge last week. Through his attorneys he has made motion for appeal to the state supreme court, a sixty-day stay of execution of sentence having been granted pending the outcome of his appeal motion.

Mason Jackson, tried for the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Hickman, found guilty of first degree murder, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary. His attorneys made motion to set aside the verdict of the jury which was overruled by Judge Brand.

The home of Emory Mullens, at Ferrellsburg was the scene of a brutal murder Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, when Albert Messer, while in a drunken stupor struck down Ike Dean, age 35, with a heavy hammer. The blow on the head of Dean proved instantly fatal. The body lay stretched out on the porch throughout the remainder of the night, while Mullens retired peacefully to his bed. An inquest was held Monday morning. Fire of an undetermined origin completely destroyed the machine shop and electrical winding room of the Island Creek Coal Company at Holden Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. Both of the structures were frame buildings and were prey to the flames before fire apparatus could be brought into play. The spectacular blaze could be seen for fifteen miles away, and was the largest conflagration in Holden since the destruction by fire of the main tipples about three years ago. The blacksmith adjoining the electrical winding room was saved from ruin by the presence of a thick fire wall that separated it from the other two buildings. The total loss, including buildings, machinery and tools is estimated at from $60,000 to $75,000. The loss is fully covered by insurance. Logan Democrat.

Huntington's Largest and Finest Collections of Rugs — So we are told

Many of our customers express surprise on seeing our large stock, for it is generally known that good rugs are difficult to obtain. They tell us that no other local assortment even approaches our own in size or completeness. But the most convincing proof of the superiority of our collection is that the customers' appreciation is usually shown by purchasing.

WHY BE SATISFIED WITH INCOMPLETE ASSORTMENTS?

Rug choosing requires real thought and care. There are many things to consider—color, pattern, quality, size and texture. The chances are that it will be difficult to find what you want in the small showing. We believe that our own assortments are complete enough to offer you a varied choice in any type of rug you may have in mind. Comparison will convince you that our prices are as moderate as any, while a glance at the following list will assure you that quality is a foregone conclusion:

M. J. Whittall, Marshall Field & Co., Stephen Sanford & Sons, A. & M. Karghusian, Hardwick & Magee, Robert Carsons & Sons, Hodges Fibra Carpet Co., W. & J. Sloane, Walte Grace Carpet Company.

We have a representative collection from each of the above famous weavers—all types of Wiltons, Axminsters, Chenilles, Velvets, wool fibre and grass rugs. The complete size range is another helpful feature. Let us show you. —third floor.

The CURTAIN ADDS THE TOUCH THAT COMPLETES THE HOUSE

The dollar you spend on window curtains does double duty—it gives distinction to the window when seen from without and is the key to the outer decorations of the room itself. It is hardly practical to exercise too much economy in the selection of appropriate curtains for the dollar saved on the purchase price is usually lost along with others through shortened service. New Proof of Paige Speed Power Endurance

Paige 6-66 Daytona Model Travels 10 Miles at Rate of 93.2 Miles Per Hour

The Paige 6-66 Daytona Model is the holder of all world's stock chassis speedway records from 5 to 100 miles. But now this record-breaking car has further demonstrated its ability.

Piloted by Earl Cooper, the Paige, in an unofficial exhibition run against time, covered 10 miles in 6 minutes and 26 1/2 seconds at the San Carlos, California track, on Sunday April 16th. It thus travelled at the terrific speed of 93 1/2 miles per hour for the ten miles.

The official record for the distance, held by this same stock chassis is 6:31:48, or 91 1/10 miles per hour. It was made at the Uniontown Speedway a year ago.

Thus, once again, the Paige in the most spectacular manner has demonstrated its power and endurance.

The Paige 6-66 is the Master of the Highway.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

"CUPID'S CUT-UPS."

It was several hours later in the evening. Charlie had gone out to give some instructions to the chauffeur, and Webster and Clara were sitting comfortably before the big log fire, gazing dreamily into the glowing embers. Neither had spoken for several minutes.

"What are you thinking of, Mr. Waugh?" she said at last. He looked up.

"Why, I don't want to story to you, and I don't know just how you would take it if I would tell you the truth," he said.

"Oh, come, its Christmas Eve, peace on earth good will toward men, tonight."

"Well if I can tell you with impunity, I'm certainly glad, so here goes. I was thinking of my possible future—and yours. I was thinking that if I had you for a wife I'd be the happiest man in the world."

"Why, Mr. Waugh!"

"Now please, please don't think too awfully hard of me. You asked me a question—and I answered the only truth I could speak. For I do love you, Clara. Remember, its Christmas Eve. Won't you accept this from me? Father gave it to mother just thirty years ago tonight."

He took from his finger a sparkling diamond ring and reached over for her hand. As he slipped the ring on the third finger of her left hand, he looked up over her head.

"Why, Clara, he exclaimed, "you're sitting right under a branch of mistletoe."

"I've known that all evening, Webster," she said, as she smiled up at him.

When Charles Hawkins came in, five minutes later, frowning and fuming about the stupidity of the chauffeur, Webster Waugh and Clara Hawkins were sitting gazing dreamily into the fire and the dispenser of stupidity in the chairs before the fire were a little closer together, and that the ring had changed from the hand of his guest to that of his sister.—(End.)

PUBLIC HEALTH.

This subject, how to safeguard the public health in my community is very plain to me as it is to every person who looks at it as he should.

First—The prevention of contagious diseases, such as typhoid fever, malaria fever, tuberculosis and many others too numerous to mention.

Typhoid fever is a communicable disease caused by a germ which grows so rapidly that one germ in twenty-four hours may produce many million of millions.

When these germs enter the body they multiply and produce poisons, so that in the course of ten days to three weeks the person becomes ill.

Every case of typhoid comes from swallowing the germs of the disease and such disease germs come from just one source—from the bodies of human beings.

The typhoid germs or seed are usually carried in milk or other foods.

The care of the patient is a very important thing to be considered; towels and garments used by the patient should be boiled for half an hour before they can be safely put in the family wash.

Typhoid fever is not easily caught unless a person eats or drinks after a person who has the disease.

Tuberculosis causes one-seventh of the yearly deaths. It is a disease of the lungs. The germs eat away the tissue of the lungs and form little masses of new tissue called tubercles. Although some of the germs of this disease may be taken into the lungs by breathing the air of an ordinary city street, yet the bacteria seems able to gain a foothold only under certain circumstances and conditions. It is only when the body is in a worn-out condition, when it is "run down" as we say, that the parasite may obtain a foothold in the lungs.

This is the most dreaded disease that we have to contend with. It is contagious but it is only spread thru carelessness of the individual who has it. It is sent into the air by means of the sputum, commonly called spit, being carelessly put in places where the sun and wind are the main factors in carrying it. It is blown through the air and many innocent people contract this dreaded disease through the carelessness of a tubercular. Another way in which it is contracted is from drinking milk from tubercular cows. This can be prevented by having the cows examined (which is done free of charge) and separating the diseased cattle from the well ones. Every one of us should appoint ourselves a committee of one and do our best to stamp out the "white plague."

Malaria fever is caused by a pest which we all are very familiar with, the mosquito. This insect breeds in swamps, garbage barrels, rain barrels, tin cans, in nearly every place where it can lay its eggs. We can rid ourselves of this pest by doing away with all trash which is allowed to accumulate around the premises by pouring oil on all stagnant water which is sure death to them.

"Swat the fly" is the slogan we should adopt now and start living up to it, because the fly is the worst pest we have to contend with. He is the fellow we find in all dirty, filthy and nasty places; he may be found where dead animals are, or on the manure piles. After they go to such places they come into our homes and play tag on the butter, hide and seek in the sugar bowl and spread all manner of diseases; they endanger the lives of the babies as well as the adults.

To eradicate this dreaded enemy of ours, first we should screen the windows and doors of our homes. We should procure a sufficient amount of fly swatters and start our campaign against them as though our very existence depended on the eradication of the fly.

—HUBERT CHAFFIN.

The seniors have practiced their play several times and are getting along fine. Every one shows interest and we have every reason to look forward to success.

Miss Elizabeth Roberts has been absent from school on account of illness. She had her tonsils removed while in Ashland last week.

Opal Austin returned from Huntington Tuesday evening.

The senior class took the final examination on Commercial Geography Tuesday morning. We are hoping they all passed. And being seniors of course they did.

The freshmen enjoyed a trip to the hills Monday evening and a ride on the cavalry wagon afterwards.

The "sophis" are planning a gay time for the seniors Friday night.

The nature study class is planning another field trip soon. Oceans of luck.

Don't forget literary society Friday afternoon.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

A COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

Just Folks.

A Prayer—by Edgar A. Guest
Grant me the strength to meet today
Whatever burdens I must bear
Let me be cheerful when I may
Nor magnify my bit of care.

Open my eyes that I may see
The larger purpose of the plan,
And when disaster threatens me,
Lord, let me face it like a man.

Let me have my vision so that I
May see beyond the doubt and dread
Tomorrow's smiling patch of sky
Let me not scorn the path I tread.

Let me behold the finished task—
Not now, but in the years to be
Grant me the faith and strength I ask
To bear its hardships willingly.

Lord, when I falter and am weak
And difficulties bar my way,
Hold up to me the goal I seek
And let me see beyond today.

Lord, let me find in toilsome care,
And bitter service to be done,
In petty failure and despair,
The larger glory to be won.

Judging the other fellow seems to be a very popular human failing. We all indulge in it to a greater or less degree, usually greater. The queer thing about it is that we do not judge from our own standard of experience, but from some standard of perfection that we have concocted out of the past.

His own mistakes, to each individual seem to sneak upon him unawares. He can not tell how it happened. He usually says it was the force of circumstances or some such reason and in most cases he is sincere. He believes he is right. Sometimes he is. Or when the other fellow slips it is always his fault. We never seem to realize that he may have been the victim of similar circumstances. We do not seem to realize that to him as well as ourselves, the thing in the beginning did not look wrong.

The next time you hear of someone making a serious mistake, before you censure him too strongly, try and remember how it happened and give the other fellow an equal chance. If you haven't made the mistake, don't be sanctimonious about it, but think how close you have come to it and if you missed it the chances are the miss was due to circumstances beyond your control.

There is no man who is in a position to judge his fellow men. We all make mistakes and they are more or less the same kind. They vary in degree according to environment and circumstances beyond the individual's control, so no one has any occasion to pat himself on the shoulder.

We know it is true that a cloudy sky makes the most beautiful sunset and it seems that this same thing is true of life. The man or woman who has met many trials and misfortunes in life, if they are not embittering, is the one who has the most beautiful old age.

With many people there is the feeling that a cynical outlook on life is a thing to be cultivated. It shows worldliness and wisdom in their estimation. It may show worldliness, and it shows wisdom if it is wisdom to make one's self miserable and unhappy. But why always look on the wrong side? Why is it necessary to think that people always have a double meaning to everything they say? We always get what we are looking for if we look for slights and lies, we are sure to find them for we manufacture them out of our own minds.

Laurels are all very well but they have never been found substantial enough to support anyone. When a man begins to rest on his laurels he is bound to be let down, sometimes with considerable force.

The season when hearts and flowers begin to grow and expand is at hand. Let us hope, however, that the building affection of the heart does not wither as quickly as the flowers which herald it.

PIKEVILLE

Pauley Wins Suit.

The Pike County Fiscal Court has been restrained from abolishing the office of County Treasurer in Pike county, and from removing treasurer H. Pauley from that office in an opinion rendered by Judge J. E. Childress at Whitesburg Wednesday. The opinion also retains the Pikeville National Bank as the lawful depository of the public funds of the county.

Two Felony Cases Reversed.

The Pike County Circuit Court was recently reversed in the case of Paul Compton, who was sentenced to the reform school on charge of shooting at E. K. Sturgill.

It was held that the juvenile law had not been complied with in the trial of the case.

Also, the case of Arthur West, who was given a year's sentence on charge of family desertion was reversed on the ground that the court erred in permitting the wife to testify against the husband.

Coleman-Runyon.

Monday morning Mr. Aubrey Runyon and Miss Sydia Coleman were quietly married at the clerk's office.

The bride is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spurl Coleman, formerly of Pikeville, now of Stewart, Ky. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Runyon of Guinard and has been employed for some time in the city mail-delivery at Pikeville.

The wedding was the culmination of a school romance which had its setting in the college here when both were students there a few months ago. The groom is a member of the class of sixteen who will graduate from the high school department of the college in May.

Marrowbone Road.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Marrowbone Good Roads Club, held at Heiler Monday evening, it was unanimously decided to proceed immediately to construct a good graded road from Marrowbone Junction to Heiler and to raise a sufficient fund by popular subscription to pay for the work.

This people on Marrowbone have long been determined to have a road which will be adequate to the traffic which will naturally follow and they have been forced to the conclusion that if such a road be built it must be done on the initiation and out of the pockets of the people of Marrowbone, as it is realized that the county is not now in position to take care of this work.—Pike County News.

Road Worker Hurt.

Jack Elswick, who is employed by a construction company on the Pikeville-Williamson highway, is thought to have been fatally injured Thursday when he was struck by a crow bar thrown by a jack screw with which he was hoisting a machine. Elswick is a farmer of the county. His skull was fractured and he was otherwise injured.

PRESTONSBURG

Post Absorbs Citizen.

All fixtures belonging to the Citizen, a newspaper published here for the past two or three years, were sold here last Monday by the Master Commissioner of Floyd circuit court, and the entire outfit—except the linotype which was taken over by the Mergenthaler representative—was purchased by The Prestonsburg Post. The proceeds of this sale, we understand, will be applied to the debts of the Eastern Kentucky Service Co., Inc.

E. H. Sowards of Pikeville was down this week to visit his wife who is recuperating at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jo M. Davidson.

The pretty little cottage built by W. B. Westbrook for Attorney J. F. Hall is about complete and adds much to this growing section of Prestonsburg.—Prestonsburg Post.

PAINTSVILLE

Airplane Coming Sunday.

Paintsville was to have been visited Monday by the airplane from Huntington, but on account of a cracked cylinder it was not thought advisable to make the trip. A new cylinder has been ordered and the plane will visit Paintsville Sunday. Flo Virginia Dare, Arthur Phillips and John Columbus, Jr., are the owners and they will fly their machine here for the benefit of the public for several days, after which it will visit other towns for the purpose of letting the people have a chance to ride in the air.
